

The light of the body is the eye:

if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness.

If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

No man can serve two masters:

for either he will hate the one, and love the other;

or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other.

Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

3. The Psalms are image-rich / image-saturated

4. The Psalms incorporate (use) images from human experience & the ANE

Psalm 13:1-2

How long wilt thou forget me, O LORD? for ever?

How long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

How long shall I take counsel in my soul, Having sorrow in my heart daily?

How long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

Psalm 23:1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

Psalm 23:2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

Psalm 23:4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Psalm 23:5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Psalm 42:1 As the hart panteth after the water brooks, So panteth my soul after thee, O God.

Psalm 46:1 God is our refuge and strength, A very present help in trouble.

Psalm 46:4 There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, The holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.

Psalm 18:1 I will love thee, O LORD, my strength. Psalm 18:2 The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; My God, my strength, in whom I will trust; My buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower. Psalm 18:3 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: So shall I be saved from mine enemies.

I love the images. However, the images are not always images we use.

We intuitively get many since they are from human experience. Others we sometimes miss!
